

SOCIAL EVENTS AND PERSONAL MENTION

MISS ELLA WILLIAMS BUEK BRIDE OF GORDON SMITH

Wedding of Miss Grace Hamilton and Dr. Robert C. Bryan Taken Place in Maryland.

A special train left Richmond yesterday morning for Greenwood to carry the guests from Richmond to attend the wedding of Miss Ella Williams Buek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Massie, and James Gordon Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Smith, Jr., of Richmond, which took place at "Rose Hill," the country estate of the bride's parents, at 1 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Russell Hovick, D. D., rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Richmond, in the presence of intimate friends and relatives of the bride and groom. "Rose Hill" is one of the handsomest estates in that section of the State and its wide rooms were thrown open everywhere and decorated in American Beauty roses, lilies of the valley and Easter lilies.

The bride descended the stairway with her uncle, Thomas C. Williams, Jr., who gave her in marriage. She wore an exquisitely simple white satin dress finished with tulle and real lace, and veil of illusion and lace was fastened with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was a shower of gardenias and lilies of the valley. The girls chosen by the bride to attend her, were: Misses Roberta Trigg, of Richmond; Mary F. Butler, of "Poplar Grove," Matthews County; Nora Randolph, Virginia Christian and Zayde Branch, of Richmond, and Kate Seddon, of Brooklyn, N. Y. They wore quaint gowns fashioned of white satin and tulle with large black velvet picture hats and their bouquets were of Taff roses and purple asters. Frank M. Smith, of Richmond, attended his brother as best man, and the groomsmen were: Messrs. Erskine Buford, Robert Pollard, Benjamin H. Smith, Stuart G. Christian, E. Addison Reynolds and John Akin Branch, all of Richmond.

The wedding, although a small home affair, is one of the most important society events of the early fall season, and the fashionable set in Richmond is greatly interested in its celebration, owing to the social prominence of both Mr. Smith and his bride.

Bryan-Hamilton.
Another fashionable out-of-town wedding, in which the ultra smart set here is deeply interested, took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at "Oak Hill," in Howard County, Md., when Miss Grace Hamilton, daughter of Mrs. S. Marland Hamilton, was married to Dr. Robert C. Bryan, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bryan, of "Laburnum." Invitations were limited to the members of the two families and intimate friends. The Hamilton home was beautifully decorated in fall flowers for the ceremony. Miss Margaret Adams was her niece's maid of honor and the bride's sister, Mrs. Horace S. Whitman, and her cousin, Miss Anne H. Myers, of Richmond, were the other attendants. Dr. Bryan had as his best man, his brother, John Stewart Bryan, of "Laburnum."

Dr. Bryan and his bride expect to spend their honeymoon in Japan and on their return to this country will make their home in Richmond. Some of the Richmond guests attending the ceremony yesterday were: Mr. and Mrs. J. Stewart Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. J. St. Pinckney Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. J. St. George Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. E. Thomas Hume, W. Douglas Gordon, Mrs. E. T. D. Myers, Madison Scott and others.

Visitors to Charlottesville.
Mr. and Mrs. Albert M. Williams, who have been the guests of Mrs. J. C. Williams in this city, left a few days ago for Charlottesville. In Charlottesville Mr. and Mrs. Williams will visit Mr. and Mrs. J. Sidney Williams, before returning to their home at Whitesburg, Ky.

Gwathmey-Vaden.
Meade Memorial Church in South Richmond, was the scene of a lovely wedding yesterday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, when Miss Mary Law Vaden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wortley Fuller Budd, became the bride of Robert Ryland Gwathmey, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Gwathmey, of this city. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Ernest Warren, rector of St. Thomas Episcopal Church, Glinter Park, in the presence of a large assembly of relatives and friends. Decorations everywhere were in pinks, purples, pinks and yellow and white chrysanthemums and smilax draped the chancel rail. Candles and white blossoms were used on the altar. Ritchie Bacon rendered the wedding march and Miss Mary Ann Gwathmey sang "O Beloved Me" immediately preceding the entrance of the bride party.

The bride wore a simple wedding dress of white satin, with an accordion-plaited tunic of crepe de chine, and the only trimmings were pearls and tulle. The long court train was caught to her shoulders with pearl ornaments and her veil of illusion was arranged in a Juliet cap and fastened with lilies of the valley. She entered the church on the arm of her step-father, Mr. Budd, who gave her away. Her flower girls were lilies of the valley. They were met at the chancel steps by the groom and his brother, Frank Winston Gwathmey, of Washington, who was best man. Miss Nannie Port Vaden was her sister's maid of honor and wore a yellow satin gown with an accordion-plaited tunic of gold tulle. She carried yellow chrysanthemums. Mrs. Walter Arlington, of Arlington, who was a dame of honor, was gowned in pearl satin, embroidered in gold beads and made with a tunic of lace. She carried a bouquet of sunburst roses.

The bridesmaids included Misses Mary Tinsley and Dorothy Hart, of Richmond, and their friends were of white crepe de chine and accordion-plaited tunics, finished with lace capes that hung from the shoulders. They carried bouquets of maidenhair ferns tied with streamers of yellow tulle. The ushers were Messrs. Lewis Blanton, of Ashland; Brantley Handy, Edward and Winston Gwathmey, of Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Gwathmey left later in the evening for a Northern wedding journey and on their return will be at home at 509 West Grace Street. A number of prominent guests from a distance have been in Richmond to attend the wedding.

Additional Debutantes.
A number of other names have recently been added to the debutante list, which as yet is still an incomplete one for the season, with several others to be announced shortly. These include Miss Roberta Kyle Pleasant, niece of Mrs. Reginald Gilliam and Miss Helen, daughter of 11 East Franklin Street; Miss Mary G. Tyler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyon Gardner, of "Sherwood Forest," the latter formerly Miss Mary Morris Jones, of this city; Miss Ethel Alston Cabell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Alston Cabell, of "Point-of-View," Miss Martha Chambers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Allen Chambers, of this city; Miss Anne Mercer, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William E. Mercer; Miss Annie Cleveland Cone, daughter of Mrs. Archibald Pleasant Cone, and granddaughter of Mrs. Stephen Putney; Miss Anne Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. D. Myers, Jr., and several others.

Mrs. Tyler and Miss Tyler will come to Richmond in November to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Archer, at 509 East Franklin Street.

Prominent Engagement.
Mrs. John Henry Christian, of Lynchburg, announces the engagement of her daughter, Muriel, to John Pegram Johnson, of Richmond, the marriage to be celebrated on November 12. A number of Richmond guests will go to Lynchburg next month for the wedding, which is to be one of the most interesting events of the fall season.

Miss Lancaster's Wedding.
A number of interesting antenuptial affairs have been given for Miss Katherine Dabney Lancaster, daughter of Mrs. Robert Alexander Lancaster, whose marriage to John Henry Guy, Jr., will be celebrated in St. James Episcopal Church Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock. Miss Florence Leigh Easley, of Houston, Halifax County, a cousin of the bride, will be maid of honor, and the two dames of honor will be Mrs. William Carrington Lancaster and Mrs. Henry Carrington Lancaster, sister-in-laws of the bride. John Palmer Lea will act as Mr. Guy's best man, and the groomsmen include Dr. Stuart McGuire, Dr. Stuart Michaux, William Kain, the Rev. Beverley Tucker, of the University of Virginia; Dabney S. Lancaster and Dr. Henry Carrington Lancaster, brothers of the bride.

A reception for relatives and intimate friends of the bride and groom will be held at the Lancaster residence on Park Avenue, immediately following the ceremony.

Attending Dancing Class.
All the fashionable little boys and girls in town were out in full force last Wednesday afternoon to attend the opening class of Miss Ella Binford's dancing school at her studio, corner of Grace and Monroe Streets. These children are among the future beaux and belles of Richmond society and are quite as gravely interested in their dances and balls as any grownups.

The studio was decorated everywhere with evergreens, and some of the children noted were Frances Arrington, Virginia McCabe, Lily McCabe, Katherine Williams, Mary Hope Wortham, Nancy Hough, Charlotte Ken, Elizabeth Coke, Nora Lee Antrim, Margaret Menure, Mary Mann, Elizabeth Gibson, Mildred Gates, Virginia Chaffin, Virginia Mayfield, Florence Fulton, Louise Bolton, Mary Taylor, Virginia Taylor, Ellen Wallace, Rose Caperton, Anne Bertie, Virginia Jones, Rebecca Alsop, Hattie Wilson, Charlotte Purcell, Harriette Clark, Lena and Mary Caperton, Mary and Frank Hobson, Elizabeth Thomas, Virginia Terrell, Charles Uden, William Talley, George Henson, Eleanor Knox, Elizabeth Wal-

A Single Application Will Banish Objectionable Hairs

(Aids to Beauty.)
Here is a home treatment for removing hairs that is quick, painless and expensive. With some powdered delatone and water make enough paste to thickly cover the objectionable hairs, apply and after 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and it will be left soft, clear and hairless. This treatment will not mar the skin, but to avoid disappointment, be careful to get real delatone.—Advertisement.
